- A 73 year-old former Red Hat Lady would love an occasional friendly visitor while her husband gets out to run errands. She lives near W. Alto and enjoys watching CSI and House.
- A delightful 91 year-old visually-impaired woman is looking for a weekly visitor on Wednesday mornings to help her read mail and occasionally do some errands. She lives near Pumpkin Vine Pike and loves the outside.
- An 85 year-old woman would love a weekly visitor on Wednesday afternoons. She lives near South Washington and enjoyed quilting & sewing in the past.
- Enjoy using a computer and answering telephone calls? We are looking for a front office assistant to volunteer on Fridays from 8 a.m.—noon. Training will be provided. We are also looking for office substitutes to fill in when needed.
- Enjoy playing games? A 79 year old woman is looking for a friendly visitor once a week so her spouse can get out and take care of other family members. She lives out near New London and loves the outside.
